COACH ☼ BUILDING.

JOHN H. BELL,

(Of the late Firm of STORDY & BELL, begs respectfully to announce that he now carries on the above business, in all its branches, in those central and extensive Premises situated at which have been entirely reconstructed for the purpose.

2 & 4 ANNANDALE STREET, LEITH WALK,

From the Subscriber's long experience and thorough practical knowledge of Coachmaking in all its details, the command of all the modern appliances necessary for economically and successfully conducting the business, and the determination to maintain and extend his reputation as a producer of first-class work, he would respectfully solicit the patronage of his many friends, former patrons, and the public generally. His constant effort will be directed to retain the full confidence of all who may entrust him with their commissions. The Saloon is well lighted and specially adapted for the exhibition of Carriages, of which a fresh and varied stock, comprising all the latest and most fashionable designs, is always kept. Designs forwarded on application, and estimates given for repairs.

ESSENCE OF COFFEE IN THREE SIZES

ESSENCE OF COFFEE WITH CHICORY

IN THREE SIZES.

(This Essence was Introduced and Popularised solely by us).

The above are also put up in Imperial Quarts to suit the requirements of Clubmasters, Restaurant and Hotel Proprietors, &c.

COFFEE AND MILK

COCOA AND MILK

CHOCOLATE AND MILK

The above are specially suitable for Parties who have not the convenience of Milk and Sugar, and hence they are indispensable for travellers, and in general for Export Purposes.

Our Goods have been known to the world for half-a-century, and have steadily gained in popular favour by their being

UNIFORM AND EXCELLENT IN QUALITY AND STRENGTH.

UNRIVALLED FOR ECONOMY. The Cost averaging about a Farthing a Cup.

ALWAYS READY FOR INSTANTANEOUS USE.

HANDY AND CLEANLY.—Reducing the washing of Dishes, &c., to a minimum.

PUT UP IN SIZES TO SUIT ALL PURCHASERS.

ADAPTED TO ALL CLIMATES.

DIRECTIONS.—Pour one or two teaspoonfuls of the Essence into the Cup, according to size, fill up with boiling water, add milk and sugar to taste, and your Coffee is ready to drink AND TO ENJOY, with the knowledge that you are drinking a good, wholesome, pure beverage, free from sediment.

The Directions for our TINNED GOODS are the same, omitting milk and sugar.

The Use of Chicory is as universal in England as it is abroad: and if the best of Chicory is used, and it be mixed in judicious proportion, the result, as CHAMBERS say in their "Journal" of world-wide circulation, is, that "the quality of thinness in the Coffee is fortified," while there is imparted "that softish and pleasing aroma which makes the beverage acceptable."

The late Dr Pereira, an eminent authority on the Science of Materia Medica, writes:—"Chicory-Coffee yields a perfectly wholesome beverage."

A Chicory Manufacturer, "of fifty years standing," writing to the Grocer, states:—"I am quite satisfied no article on equal terms can compete with Chicory for mixing with Coffee, or Chicory would not continue to be used in all parts of the world."

The Right Hon. W. E. Gladstone, in his Budget speech on 24th April 1882, said:—"We have long proceeded on the principle that the mixture of CHICORY with Coffee is not a deleterious mixture; that it was rooted in the habits of many countries; so much so, that many people would not drink their Coffee without it. In France and Belgium that is very much the case."

All this clearly shows that not only is pure Coffee not universally used unmixed, but that the judicious addition of Chicory is a recognised improvement. Hence the great value of

T. & H. SMITH & CO.'S ESSENCE OF COFFEE WITH CHICORY.

It makes a refreshing, exhilarating, wholesome, pleasant cup of Coffee, alike for breakfast or after dinner. And the ease and sureness with which it can be prepared, make it a valuable addition to the larder of prince or peasant, hotelkeeper, &c.

SOLD BY GROCERS, STOREKEEPERS, CHEMISTS, &c., ALL OVER THE WORLD.

HACKNEY CARRIAGES IN EDINBURGH.

FARES BY DISTANCE.

The distance to which any hackney carriage may be driven under these Bye-laws shall be eight miles from the Cross of Edinburgh.

(1.) When a party not exceeding two grown-up persons, and without any luggage other than a carpet-bag or the like, enters a carriage at a stance, or when driving along disengaged, they shall be driven half a mile for 6d.; and if they return, they shall pay the same fare. The driver shall draw up to either side of the street when called; and if detained more than five minutes before starting, he shall be entitled to 6d. for waiting. N.B.—This rule shall not apply to fares from railway stations.

(2.) The fare from the division of Queen Street between Frederick and Hanover Streets is the same as from W. Queen Street stance; the fare from Frederick Street (North) and from the part of East Princes Street stance in George Street west of Frederick Street is the same as from George Street; and the fare from the Lyceum Theatre is the same as from the Caledonian Railway stance. Excepting these and the 6d. Fare, the fares by distance are shown in the Table of Cab Fares. The charges in the table shall include going from the stance or stable to the hirer's residence, and waiting ten minutes. But if the carriage be detained, before starting, more than ten minutes, a charge for waiting at the rate of 6d. for each quarter of an hour, or part thereof, after the expiry of the ten minutes, shall be allowed; and if the place where the hirer is to be taken up be beyond a mile from the stance or stable whence the carriage is taken, there shall be a charge of 6d. for such distance.

(3.) There shall be no charge for waiting while a hackney carriage is on the way to a destination unless the waiting before starting and the waiting by the way exceeds in all ten minutes; and when such waiting exceeds ten minutes it shall be charged for in terms of section (2) of this bye-law. There shall be no charge for a short deviation from the direct route.

(4.) The fare to any place not mentioned in the table shall be the same as that to any place mentioned therein which is in the immediate vicinity.

(5.) When the fare of any particular place not mentioned cannot be ascertained by reference to a place in the immediate vicinity, the fare shall be 1s. for any distance not exceeding a mile and a half for one or two passengers; 1s. for any distance not exceeding one mile for three or four passengers; and 6d. for every additional half-mile, or part thereof, for any number of passengers not exceeding four.

(6.) Half fare returning with the party, excepting the half-mile drive.

(7.) When parties return (which they shall have the option of doing), and the fare going is 1s., the carriage shall wait ten minutes without any charge for waiting; when 1s. 6d., fifteen minutes; when 2s. and upwards, twenty minutes. If the carriage be detained longer, a charge shall be allowed for waiting, at the rate of 6d. for every twenty minutes or part thereof, commencing when the free waiting expires.

(8.) When a carriage is called but not used, a charge of 6d. shall be allowed, if the place to which it is called be under half a mile from the stance or stable, and 1s. if beyond that.—Waiting as in section (2).

FARES BY TIME.

It shall be in the option of the hirer to pay by time for a carriage employed within the municipal bounds, for SHOPPING, MAKING CALLS, and the like, where the driving is not continuous. The charge in such cases shall be 2s. for the first hour or part thereof, and 6d. for every additional quarter of an hour or part thereof.

For an AIRING into the country within eight miles from the Cross of Edinburgh, and returning, the rate shall be 8s. for the first hour or part thereof, and 1s. for every twenty minutes or part thereof. Unless the hirer wishes a slower pace, the rate of driving when out an airing shall be at least six miles an hour; and in the event of the driving being at a slower pace than six miles an hour, contrary to the wish of the hirer, it shall be optional for the hirer to pay the fare in the proportion of 8s. for every six miles so travelled. A drive round the Queen's Drive shall be at the rate of 5s. per hour.

FARES BY DISTANCE OR BY TIME.

(1.) If there be more than four adults driven, a charge of 6d. extra shall be made for each additional adult, or for each two children above six years of age, and under twelve. No additional charge for one child above six to twelve, or children under six years.

(2.) Double fare—from twelve o'clock at night till seven o'clock morning. 1. When the hiring shall be by time the charge shall be double fare. 2. When the hiring shall be by distance, and the number of passengers shall not exceed four, the charge shall be double the fare as for one or two passengers. 3. For waiting, double charge shall be allowed. 4. The double charge shall not apply to luggage.

(3.) On Sunday the fares for such carriages as shall have been previously ordered or engaged, or hired elsewhere than on the public streets or stances, shall be fare and a half.

(4.) The above fares are for one-horse carriages, and there shall be no additional charge when two horses are used by the owner without being required to do so; but if two horses be used at the request of a hirer, the charge shall be fare and a half.

(5.) No owner or driver shall demand or receive more than the regular fare.

LUGGAGE.

For luggage exceeding 100 lbs. in weight there shall be a charge of 6d. extra. But there shall be no charge for luggage under that weight. The driver shall assist in loading and unloading in all cases when required.

FARES MAY BE WITHHELD.

Any party shall be entitled to withhold payment of the fare—

1. When the name and number are not painted outside, or when there is no plate inside, in terms of Articles 2 and 3 of the bye-laws.
2. When the reference ticket is not given on demand.
3. When the bye-laws, table of fares, and driver's licence are not shown on demand.
4. When an overcharge is made.
5. When the driver fails or refuses to complete an engagement; but if payment of the fare be withheld, the party shall give the driver his full name, designation, and residence.

REDRESS.

Complaints for breaches of the foregoing bye-laws should be made at the Procurator-Fiscal's Office, 7 City Chambers, immediately, or within eight days after the date of the offence, except in cases in which parties are prevented doing so by their absence from town.

No driver while on the stance can refuse an engagement, except on the ground that he has another engagement which interferes with it. And in such a case he shall, if required, furnish the person whose engagement is refused with the name and address of the party to whom he is engaged.

Parties leaving articles in hackney carriages should give immediate notice to the Depute-City-Clerk, City Chambers.

RATES OF POSTAGE, AND CONDITIONS OF TRANSMISSION.

INLAND LETTERS.

The prepaid rates of postage are as follows, viz. :—

For a letter not exceeding 1 oz.,	1d.
" above 1 oz. but not exceeding 2 oz.,	1½d.
" " 2 oz. " " 4 oz.,	2d.
" " 4 oz. " " 6 oz.,	2½d.
" " 6 oz. " " 8 oz.,	3d.

And so on, at the rate of ½d. for every 2

A letter posted unpaid is chargeable on delivery with double postage; and if insufficiently prepaid, with double the deficiency.

No letter may exceed in dimensions 18 × 9 × 6 inches, unless to or from a Government office.

COLONIAL AND FOREIGN LETTERS.

The rates of postage on letters to the colonies and foreign countries are entered in the Table of Colonial and Foreign Postage.

A letter posted unpaid, or paid only in part, to any country where prepayment is compulsory, is returned to the writer.

Unpaid letters to or from countries in the Postal Union, Australia, New Zealand, Cape Colony, Natal, Bechuanaland, Orange Free State, Transvaal, and St Helena, are charged double the prepaid rate, and those partially prepaid with double the deficiency.

Letters not specially directed by a particular route are, as a rule, forwarded by the first mail despatched.

Letters for Russia should have the name of the town and province added in English, French, or German.

No letter may exceed 2 feet in length by 1 foot in breadth or depth.

POST CARDS.

Official post cards impressed with a halfpenny stamp, or reply cards impressed with a halfpenny stamp on each portion, or private post cards impressed with a halfpenny stamp, are available for transmission between places in the United Kingdom.

The front (or stamped) side is for the address only, and there must be nothing else written, printed, or otherwise impressed on it. On the reverse side, any communication, whether of the nature of a letter or otherwise, may be written or printed. Nothing whatever may be attached except adhesive stamps in payment of additional postage or stamp duty; nor may the card be folded, cut, or otherwise altered. If any of these rules be infringed, the card will be charged 1d. on delivery if addressed to (any place in) the United Kingdom, but if for abroad such cards are not forwarded. An inland post card is transmissible for abroad if the additional postage is made by postage stamps.

When, owing to a great and unusual influx of letters, books, etc., the transmission or delivery of the letters would be delayed if the whole mail were dealt with indiscriminately, post cards may be kept back until the next despatch or delivery (unless paid for and posted as late letters).

No card other than one of those issued by the Government, or a private card impressed with the halfpenny stamp, will pass under a halfpenny stamp, if it bear on it a written communication of the nature of a letter (unless it be a circular letter).

The conditions under which private cards are impressed with a halfpenny stamp, can be ascertained at the Inland Revenue Office.

Inland.—Post cards are sold at the rate of 5½d. (thin) and 6d. (thick) for every 10; reply cards, at double rates.

Foreign.—Post cards, 1d. each (or inland post cards paid the foreign rate), and reply post cards, 2d. each, may be sent to any of the countries in the Postal Union.

INLAND NEWSPAPERS.

For each inland newspaper, whether posted singly or in a packet, the postage, when prepaid, is one halfpenny; but a packet containing two or more registered newspapers is not chargeable with a higher rate of postage than would be chargeable on a book packet of the same weight—viz. one halfpenny for every 2 oz. or part of 2 oz.

A newspaper or a packet of newspapers posted either unpaid or insufficiently paid, will be treated as an unpaid or insufficiently paid book packet of the same weight.

Every newspaper or packet of newspapers may be posted either with or without a cover, but entirely open at both ends, and folded so as to admit of easy examination; otherwise it will be treated as a letter.

Every newspaper should be so folded as to admit of the title being readily seen.

A registered newspaper, or a packet of registered newspapers, must not contain any enclosure except the supplement or supplements belonging to it, otherwise such will be charged as a letter, if under 8 oz.; and if over that weight is sent by Parcel Post and charged 1d. of a fine, and any deficiency in the Parcel Post rate.

All unregistered newspapers are subject to the rates and regulations of the Book Post.

A packet must not exceed 14 lbs. in weight, or exceed 2 feet in length or 1 foot in width or depth.

Any publication fulfilling the following conditions can, upon payment of an annual fee of 5s., be registered at the General Post Office to pass within the United Kingdom as a newspaper, as also for transmission to places abroad.

The conditions are as follows :—

The publication must consist wholly or in great part of political or other news, or of articles relating thereto, or to other current topics, with or without advertisements.

It must be printed and published in the United Kingdom, and must be published in numbers at intervals of not more than seven days.

The full title and date of publication must be printed at the top of the first page, and the whole or part of the title and the date of publication at the top of every subsequent page; and this regulation applies to 'Tables of Contents' and 'Indexes.'

A supplement must consist wholly or in great part of matter like that of a newspaper, or of advertisements, printed on paper, unstitched; or wholly or in part of engravings, prints, or lithographs illustrative of articles in the paper. It must in every case be published with the newspaper, and have the title and date at the top of every page; except that any pages, sheet, or side on which engravings, prints, or lithographs are given, the date need not appear.

INLAND BOOK POST.

The postage is one halfpenny for every two ounces or part thereof.

If posted unpaid, will be charged with double rate; and if partially paid, with double the deficiency.

A book packet may contain any number of separate books or other publications, photographs (when not on glass or any like substance), drawings, prints, or maps, and any paper or other substance in ordinary use for writing or printing upon, whether plain or not, provided that it contains no enclosure or anything of the nature of a letter, unless it be a circular letter (entries, however, merely stating who sends the book, etc., or to whom it is given, are not regarded as a letter), and it may contain anything necessary for the safe transmission of any of the above-mentioned articles, and legitimate binding or mounting.

Circulars, i.e. letters which, from internal evidence, appear to be intended for transmission in identical terms to several persons, and the whole or the greater part of which is produced by ordinary type, engraving, or lithography, or other mechanical process, may also be sent by book post; but productions of the type-writer, or imitations thereof, are not admissible as circular letters.

A book packet must be posted either without a cover or in a cover entirely open at both ends, and in such a manner as to admit of the contents being easily withdrawn for examination. It may, however, be tied with string.

No book packet may exceed 5 lbs. in weight, or 18 inches in length, 9 inches in width, and 6 inches in depth, unless to or from a Government Office.

A book packet, if posted contrary to the regulations of the Book Post, is chargeable as a letter if under 8 oz., and if over that weight is forwarded by Parcel Post, and charged a fine of 1d. in addition to any deficient postage.

When, owing to a great and unusual influx of letters, books, etc., the transmission or delivery of the letters would be delayed if the whole mail were dealt with indiscriminately, book packets may be kept back till the next despatch or delivery.

COLONIAL AND FOREIGN BOOK POST.

Articles which may be sent to places abroad under the Book Post Regulations consist of two classes, as follows:—

(a) Commercial Papers, under which are comprised all papers or documents written or drawn wholly or partly by hand (except letters or communications in the nature of letters, or other papers or documents having the character of an actual and personal correspondence), documents of legal procedure, deeds drawn up by public functionaries, copies of or extracts from deeds under private seal (and whether written or printed on stamped or unstamped paper), way bills, bills of lading, invoices, and other documents of a mercantile character, documents of insurance and other public companies, all kinds of manuscript music, the manuscript of books and other literary works, and other papers of a similar description.

(b) Printed Papers, including periodical works, books (stitched or bound), pamphlets, sheets of music (printed), visiting cards, address cards, proofs of printing (with or without the manuscript relating thereto), engravings, photographs (when not on glass or in frames containing glass), pictures, papers impressed for the use of the blind, or drawings, cardboard drawing, models stamped in relief (except for Russia and Sweden), plans, maps, catalogues, prospectuses, announcements, and notices of various kinds, whether printed, engraved, autographed, or lithographed, and in general all impressions or copies obtained upon paper, parchment, or cardboard by means of printing, lithography, autography, or any other mechanical process easy to recognise, except the copying press, and anything usually attached or appurtenant to any of the before-mentioned articles in the way of binding, mounting, or otherwise, and anything convenient for their safe transmission by post which shall be contained in the same packet; also printed, engraved, or lithographed circulars, notwithstanding that such circulars may be letters or communications in the nature of a letter. Stamps for prepayment, whether obliterated or not, and all printed articles constituting the sign of a monetary value, are, however, excluded from transmission by Book Post to countries in the Postal Union.

The two classes are subject to the same rates of postage, except that the minimum rate for commercial papers, however small the weight, is 2½d. in every case. If there be any mixture of the two in the same packet, the whole packet is treated as commercial papers.

Every packet must be posted either without a cover (in which case it must not be fastened, whether by means of gum, wafer, sealing wax, postage stamp, or otherwise), or in a cover entirely open at both ends so as to admit of the contents being easily withdrawn for examination. For the greater security of the contents, however, it may be tied at the ends with string which can be easily unfastened.

All Books and printed matter imported into the United States through the Post, however small the value, are subject to a duty of 25 per cent. of that value, except periodicals and newspapers already exempt from duty, photographs, and printed papers other than books, received in such small quantities as to suggest that they are for personal use and not for sale.

Books and periodicals addressed to the U.S. of Colombia are liable to customs duties, unless intended for the personal use of the addressee. Books, whether bound or sewn, addressed to Uruguay, are liable to customs duties unless the whole value of those sent to one addressee is less than 100 francs (£4).

The limits of weight are 4 lbs. for countries in the Postal Union, and 5 lbs. in all other cases.

The limits of size for packets addressed to countries in the Postal Union is 18 inches long by 1 foot in breadth or depth, and for other places abroad, 2 feet long by 1 foot in breadth or depth.

INLAND PATTERN AND SAMPLE POST.

Trade patterns and samples of merchandise may be sent at the following rates of postage:—

For 4 oz.,	1d.
„ 4 oz. to 6 oz.,	1½d.
„ 6 oz. to 8 oz.,	2d.

No packet may exceed 8 oz. in weight. The limits of dimensions are 12 in. by 8 in. by 4 in. If either of these conditions be infringed, the packet will not be forwarded.

If posted wholly unpaid, it will be charged double postage; and if insufficiently paid, with double the deficiency.

The packet must solely consist of bond fide trade patterns and samples of merchandise, no article sent for sale, or in execution of an order (however small the quantity), or sent by one private individual to another, is admissible; and if any such packet be posted prepaid at the pattern-rate only, it will be charged with double the deficient postage, at the letter-rate, together with a fine of 6d.

Patterns and samples must be sent in wrappers (marked 'Pattern Post' or 'Sample Post') entirely open at both ends, and must be so packed that they may be easily withdrawn for examination; but samples of seeds, flour, drugs, and such-like articles, which cannot be sent in open wrappers, may be enclosed in boxes (in such a way as to admit of easy examination) or in bags of linen or other material, tied at the neck. Closed bags, even if transparent, will not be allowed. In all cases where the requirements in regard to the mode of enclosure are not complied with, the packet will be charged with double the deficient postage at the letter-rate.

It is obligatory that the name, trade, and address of the trader or firm by whom the patterns and samples are sent out be in all cases printed or conspicuously stamped on the outside of the wrapper or on the label. If this rule be not complied with, the packet will be charged with double the deficient postage at the letter-rate.

When returned to the trader or firm by whom they are originally sent, patterns will be allowed to pass at pattern-rates, if one of the following conditions be complied with:—

- (a) They may be returned in the original wrapper, the written address being carefully erased, and the words 'Returned Patterns,' or 'Returned to,' being prefixed to the printed address of the trader, in large and legible characters.
- (b) Or, a reversible wrapper may be used, having the trader's name, address, and trade, and the heading 'Returned Patterns' printed on the reverse side.
- (c) Or, they may be returned in a fresh wrapper, bearing the printed address, etc., and heading above described.

The number, price, and private business marks may be in writing, but no other writing will be allowed (except, of course, the address of the person to whom the patterns are sent, the words 'Pattern Post,' 'Sample Post,' 'Returned Patterns,' or 'Returned to'). In case of the infringement of this rule, the packet will be surcharged at the letter-rate.

Patterns of scissors, knives, razors, and other sharp articles, provided they be so packed as to completely prevent injury to the officers employed, or to the other contents of the mail bags.

No glass bottle, or glass in any form, may be sent; no explosive, liquid, semi-liquid, or greasy matter, nor powders of any kind which may stain or do other damage; nor any living creature.

COLONIAL AND FOREIGN PATTERN AND SAMPLE POST.

The Pattern and Sample Post to the colonies and foreign countries generally is restricted to bonâ fide trade patterns or samples of merchandise. Goods sent for sale, or in execution of an order (however small the quantity may be), or any articles sent by one private individual to another which are not actually patterns or samples, cannot be forwarded by Pattern Post.

No article liable to customs duties can be sent as a sample or pattern.

For rates of postage, see Colonial and Foreign Rates of Postage, p. 799.

Patterns or samples, when practicable, must be sent in covers open at the ends, and in such a manner as to be easy of examination. But samples of seeds, drugs, and such like articles, which cannot be sent in covers of this kind, may be posted enclosed in boxes or in bags, fastened in such a manner that they may be readily opened.

There must be no writing or printing upon or in any packet except the address of the person for whom it is intended, the address of the sender, a trade mark or number, and the price of the articles, the weight or size and the quantity to be disposed of, or such as may be necessary to indicate the place of origin or the nature of the merchandise. A packet for a country in the Postal Union may have enclosed in it printed papers, and any of the articles designated as 'Commercial Papers,' if the rate applicable to such be paid.

Samples of saleable value must not be sent to any foreign country, or to any British possession included in the Postal Union. Samples of eider down, raw or thread silk, woollen or goats' hair thread, vanilla, or isinglass, are considered to fall under this rule if they weigh more than three ounces.

Such articles as scissors, knives, razors, forks, steel pens, nails, keys, watch machinery, metal tubing, pieces of metal or ore, may be sent, provided that they be packed and guarded so as to afford complete protection to the contents of the mail bags and the officers of the Post Office, while at the same time they may be easily examined. Liquids, glass, anything of a greasy nature, indigo, explosives, and powders of all kinds are strictly prohibited.

The limit of weight is not the same to all countries. See Colonial and Foreign Rates of Postage, p. 799.

INLAND PARCEL POST.

In order that a packet may go by Parcel Post, it must be tendered for transmission as a parcel, and should bear the words 'Parcel Post' clearly written in the left-hand top corner. It is desirable that a parcel should bear the name and address of the sender on the cover, but not in such a position as to be mistaken for the address of the parcel.

The size allowed for an Inland Postal Parcel is—

Greatest length,	3 ft. 6 in.
Greatest length and girth combined,	6 ft. 0 in.

For example:—A parcel measuring 3 ft. 6 in. in its longest dimension, may measure as much as 2 ft. 6 in. in girth, or, if shorter, may be thicker.

The rates of postage are,—

Not exceeding 1 lb. in weight,	3d.
Exceeding 1 lb. and not exceeding 2 lbs.,	4½d.
" 2 lbs. " " 3 lbs.,	6d.

And so on at the rate of 1½d. for every additional lb. up to 11 lbs., which is the limit of weight.

The postage must be paid in advance, by means of postage stamps, which should be affixed by the sender. Officers of the Post Office are strictly forbidden to affix stamps for the public. Parcels may be paid in money at General Post Office, provided that the amount is not less than 20s. In posting a parcel it should be handed over the counter, and care taken to let the officer who accepts it know that it is intended for transmission by Parcel Post. In no case should the parcel be posted in a letter-box.

If a packet bearing the words 'Parcel Post' is not posted in accordance with the regulations, it is treated as a letter or book packet, if it is fully prepaid at the rate proper to either, and is otherwise in accordance with the letter or book post regulations; but if not fully prepaid at the letter or book post rate, it will be treated as a parcel, and charged on delivery with a fine of 1d., together with the deficient postage, if any, at the Parcel rate.

A customs declaration must be made in the case of parcels for the Channel Islands.

To offices where letters may be addressed 'to be called for,' parcels may also be so addressed; such parcels are liable to a demurrage charge of 1d. a day after one clear day. The maximum charge is 1s. 5d. Such parcels are kept for three weeks. If at the end of one week the parcel is not claimed, and it bears the name and address of the sender on the outside, a notice is posted to the sender intimating that the parcel has not been called for. No demurrage is charged on parcels addressed to persons beyond the town free delivery or on board ship.

(See under REGISTRATION AND COMPENSATION.)

COLONIAL AND FOREIGN PARCEL POST.

For countries, dimensions, and weight, see p. 804.

The rules as to prepayment, method of address, and posting are the same as with inland parcels.

Customs Declaration.—Parcels are liable to customs regulations and duties, and the sender of a parcel is required to make a customs declaration furnishing—upon a special form provided for the purpose—an accurate statement of the contents and value and other particulars. The declaration form should, if possible, be filled up in both English and French. Customs duties will be collected on delivery. In addition to customs duties, a charge of 6d. per parcel for stamp duty, clearance, etc., is levied on all dutiable parcels entering the Cape of Good Hope and Natal; and 1s. to British Bechuanaland and the British Protectorate in South Africa, and to the Orange Free States, 1s. 6d. To Mexico a charge of 5 cents is made for a parcel not exceeding 1 lb., and 1 cent for every 4 oz. on a parcel exceeding 1 lb.

Parcels for Aden, Ascension, Egypt, India, St. Helena, South Africa, and Zanzibar must not exceed £50 in value.

Re-direction and Return of Parcels.—Parcels arriving in this country and re-directed from one address to another in the United Kingdom will be treated and surcharged under the regulations which govern the treatment and surcharge of re-directed parcels by the Inland Parcel Post.

If a parcel cannot be delivered as addressed, or is refused, the sender, if his address be given on the parcel, will be communicated with by the Post Office as to the manner in which the parcel shall be disposed of.

If returned or re-directed from one country to another, the parcel will be charged a full rate of postage.

Parcels redirected to this country from France, Belgium, Holland, Spain, and other countries are, in addition to the postage, charged the customs duty leviable in the country from which they are re-directed.

A parcel should be properly packed and sealed by the sender, so that it cannot be opened without breaking the seal.

SINGLE POST LETTERS BY RAILWAY.

Railway Companies which have entered into an agreement with the Postmaster-General for the above service will accept and convey by the next available train or steamship single inland post letters, not exceeding 1 oz. in weight, either to be called for at the station of address, or to be transferred there to the nearest Post Office letter-box, for delivery by postman, under the following conditions, viz.: Every letter must be taken to a passenger station of the Railway Company over whose line it is to be sent, and tendered, during such hours as the station is open to the public, to a servant of the Railway Company in the Parcel Booking Office, or, if that office be closed, in the Passenger Booking Office.

Upon every such letter there is a fee of 2d. in addition to the postage (1d.).

Before a railway letter can be accepted, the sender must affix a postage stamp (or stamps) of the value of 1d., and pay the sum of 2d. in cash.

No letter can be accepted which exceeds 1 oz. in weight; or is addressed to a foreign country, or to a colony or British Possession; or which from any words or marks thereon appears to be intended for registration; or which contains or appears to contain anything which would be subjected to registration if sent by post; or anything which may not be sent by the Inland Letter Post.

Despatch.—Letters will be forwarded by the next available train or steamship to the station of address, which may be a passenger station to be called for, or to the actual residence of the addressee, with the addition of the name of the railway station to which it is to be transmitted. A letter addressed to be called for will be retained at the station of address for seven days from the date of arrival. In order to obtain delivery, the addressee or his agent must apply for it at the Parcel Booking Office, or, if that office be closed, at the Passenger Booking Office, during such hours as the station is open to the public. If the letter is addressed to a residence, it will be transferred to the Post Office receptacle nearest to the station for delivery by the Post Office; and any letter not plainly addressed to a station to be called for will be dealt with in like manner.

EXPRESS DELIVERY.

Letters and parcels are accepted at the General Post Office and the Branch and Sub Telegraph Delivering Offices, to be forwarded immediately by messenger direct to any part of the Edinburgh and Leith postal area. Fees.—The fee for delivery in Edinburgh or Leith of a letter or parcel under 1 lb., is 3d. per mile or part thereof, and 1½d. for each additional lb. beyond the first lb.; and if the sender desires a special conveyance, such must be paid for in addition. If the distance exceeds two miles, and a public conveyance is not available in both directions, the actual cost of a special conveyance must be paid also. Every packet must be handed over the counter, and the words 'Express Delivery' written above the address, on the left-hand corner. Hours of Delivery—8 a.m. to 7 p.m. Replies and Returns.—When a reply or further service is required by the sender, the words 'Wait Reply' or 'Further Service' must be written above the address of the letter, and the messenger will be allowed to wait 10 minutes free of charge; but after that time 2d. is charged for every quarter of an hour or part thereof. When a packet on a return or further service is taken to an address on the messenger's homeward route, or within half a mile of the Post Office from which the messenger originally started from, half only of the mileage rate is charged.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF TRANSMISSION.

ADDRESSES AND PETITIONS TO THE QUEEN AND PARLIAMENT.

Petitions and addresses to the Queen, forwarded direct or through a member of either House of Parliament, are exempt from postage. Petitions to members of either House so addressed are also exempt, provided they do not exceed 2 lbs. in weight, and, sent without covers, are in covers open at the ends.

PARLIAMENTARY PROCEEDINGS.

Printed notes or proceedings of the Imperial Parliament, sent in open covers, having the words 'Parliamentary Proceedings' written or printed thereon, are allowed to exceed the limits of size and weight allowed for book packets, and the postage is the same as the prepaid book rate, whether prepaid or not.

PARLIAMENTARY NOTICES.

Parliamentary Notices may be posted at any Money Order Post Office in the United Kingdom:—

The words 'Parliamentary Notice' must be written or printed on the face of the letter; and in order to secure the speedy return of any notices which may be undelivered, the name and address of the Solicitor issuing such notice should also be printed or written on the face of the letter.

Notices which, by the standing orders of either House of Parliament, are required to be served on or before the 15th December, must be posted not later than the 12th December, and on the 11th if the 12th be a Sunday; and those notices which, by the same orders, may be served after the 15th, must be posted not later than the 18th, and on the 17th if the 18th be a Sunday.

The postage (letter-rate) chargeable on these notices, and the registration fee of 2d., must be prepaid by stamps.

The notices must be posted at the Post Office counter, accompanied with duplicate lists of the addresses; the notices being arranged in the order of the list; and if they correspond with the addresses, the sheets will be signed and stamped, and one of the duplicate lists will then be returned to the person who brought the letters, and the other forwarded to the Secretary, General Post Office, London.

The hours for receiving such notices are the same as for the registration of ordinary letters, unless they be presented at such a time as to interfere with the other duties of the office; in which case the postmaster may appoint any other time within the next twenty-four hours for receiving the same, provided that, when the notices are to be served on or before the 15th December, such arrangement do not delay the posting beyond the 12th. Senders should, if possible, arrange on the previous day with the postmaster as to the most convenient time for posting.

NON-COMMISSIONED OFFICERS, SOLDIERS AND SEAMEN IN H.M. SERVICE.

Non-commissioned officers, schoolmasters, schoolmistresses, private soldiers, seamen, writers in

H.M. Navy, whether serving on sea or land, in a British possession or foreign country, the Cape Mounted Rifles, and enrolled pensioners in Canada, can send and receive prepaid letters, not exceeding half an ounce, for a postage of 1d.; but if any such letters have to pass through a foreign country, they are subject, in addition, to the foreign postage, whatever that may be. Thus, the postage to the under-mentioned countries (including the British charge of one penny) is as follows:—

To or from—	s. d.
*Australia, *Ceylon, *Hong Kong, *India, etc., via Italy , Chili, Peru, or any other place in the South Pacific, via Panama , and Bahamas, via New York	0 2
Mauritius, by French packet	0 2½
„ via Italy and Ceylon	0 2

The person claiming the privilege must at the time be actually employed in the service of Her Majesty, and must not be either a commissioned officer or warrant officer in the army, or assistant engineer, gunner, boatswain, or carpenter in the navy, the privilege not extending to these officers.

If the letter be posted in the United Kingdom, unpaid or insufficiently prepaid, or if the class or description of the soldier or seaman be not given, it will be returned to the writer.

The name of the soldier or seaman, with his class or description, must appear in the direction, and the officer having the command must sign his name, and specify the ship or regiment, corps or detachment, to which the soldier or seaman belongs; the name of the ship or regiment being entered in full. The foregoing particulars must be given in one of the following forms:—

FOR PASSENGERS ON BOARD MAIL PACKETS.

Special arrangements are made for the delivery of letters addressed to passengers on board the packets for America calling at Queenstown, the Royal mail packets for Brazil, etc., calling at Lisbon, the Peninsular and Oriental packets from Brindisi with mails for Egypt, India, Australia,

* If posted in time to reach London on Thursday morning, the postage is 1d. only.

China, etc., and the Orient packets from Naples with mails for Australia,—such letters may be posted up to the time at which ordinary registered letters to go by the same packets are received; but they must be registered, and fully prepaid, and addressed to the ‘care of the commander of the packet.’

LETTERS BY PRIVATE SHIPS.

Letters intended to be sent by private ship must be addressed ‘By Private Ship;’ and if by a particular vessel, the name of the ship must be added. The postage of a letter by a private ship is the same as by mail packet.

REGULATIONS AS TO PREPAYMENT, REGISTRATION, ETC.

MODES OF PREPAYMENT.

Inland letters, newspapers, and book packets can only be prepaid by means of postage stamps, except at the General Post Office, Edinburgh, where letters and book packets may, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., be prepaid in money, provided the amount be not less than £1, and that the letters and book packets be tied in separate bundles of 5s. each, with the addresses arranged in the same direction.

REGISTRATION (INLAND AND FOREIGN).

Letters, etc., must be prepaid as regards both postage and registration fee; except official letters for Government Offices in London, Dublin, or Edinburgh, which may be registered on prepayment, in stamps, of the registration fee only.

To some foreign countries a letter can be registered only to the port of arrival, and to a few countries there is no arrangement for registration.

No letter or postal packet addressed to initials or to a fictitious name can be registered, unless addressed to the care of a person or firm. Every article presented for registration should be enclosed in a strong cover securely fastened.

Every letter, etc., to be registered must be given to an agent of the Post Office, and a receipt obtained for it, and should on no account be dropped into the letter-box. If an article marked ‘registered’ be dropped into the letter-box, directed to any place in the United Kingdom, it will be liable to a registration fee of 8d., instead of the ordinary fee of 2d.; and if posted containing coin, watches, or jewellery, without being registered, will be treated in like manner.

Letters containing coin for any of the British colonies not in the Postal Union can be registered, and if posted unregistered, they are treated as inland letters under similar circumstances.

Letters containing coin, jewellery, or precious articles, cannot be accepted for registration to many of the countries in the Postal Union; nor can a letter with the declared value of its contents marked outside.

The sender of an inland registered letter or packet may obtain an acknowledgment of its due delivery by paying at the time of posting an additional fee of 2d., and should a like acknowledgment be desired for a letter addressed to a foreign country or British colony in the Postal Union, a fee of 2½d. is required.

Registered letters require to be posted at General Post Office thirty minutes, and at the sub-offices fifteen minutes, before the closing of the box for ordinary letters; but upon payment of a late fee of 4d. they may be registered at General Post Office until the closing of the letter-box for ordinary letters for each despatch.

The registration of a packet makes its transmission much more secure, as it can be traced through its whole course; and thus the loss of a registered packet is a very rare occurrence. Nevertheless, large sums of money or other articles of great value should not be sent through the post, as the machinery of the department is not arranged with a view to such transmissions. If sent unregistered, valuable articles are exposed to risk.

REGISTRATION AND COMPENSATION.

By law the Postmaster-General is not responsible for the safe delivery of a registered letter, packet, or parcel, but under certain conditions he will give compensation for loss or damage of inland registered letter, etc., to the extent of £25, according to the amount of registration fee paid thereon, viz.:—

Registration Fee (Inland).	2d.	3d.	4d.	5d.	6d.
Limit of Compensation.	£5	£10	£15	£20	£25

RULES.

Posting and Packing.

The letter, packet, or parcel must be posted in accordance with the rules, and a certificate of posting must be obtained. This certificate will be filled up and signed by the officer of the Post Office receiving the postal packet.

The contents of the postal packet must be securely packed and enclosed in a reasonably strong case, wrapper, or cover, securely fastened, and of a nature calculated to preserve the contents from loss or damage in the post, and if it be desired to secure compensation for damage to a postal packet (other than a parcel), such postal packet must bear the words ‘Fragile, with Care.’ These words should appear on the face of the cover above the address.

The packet must be marked with the word ‘Registered,’ and with the amount of the fee proper to the value up to which the sender desires to secure compensation, thus:—

Registered, 2d.; Registered, 3d.; and so on.

The registered Parcel Post will be available for watches and jewellery. Money may also be sent in a registered parcel, but no compensation will be given in respect of the loss or damage of such parcel or of any of its contents.

General Conditions.

No compensation either for loss or damage will be given in respect of a postal packet containing any article which may not under the regulations in force for the time being be lawfully sent by the post by which it is in fact sent; or a packet (other than a letter) containing any money; or a letter containing any money, unless it be enclosed in a registered letter envelope provided by the Postmaster-General, and—

- (a) If containing coin, unless the coins are packed and enclosed in such a way as to move about as little as possible.
- (b) If containing any bank note, unless the name of the bank of issue, and number and amount, and (where necessary) the date of the note be supplied to the Postmaster-General when required.
- (c) If containing any postal order, unless the amount and number of such order be supplied to the Postmaster-General when required.
- (d) If containing any bill of exchange, bond, coupon, or other order or authority for the payment of money or security for money, unless particulars sufficient to identify the document be supplied to the Postmaster-General when required.

The compensation given in respect of the loss or damage of coin shall not in the case of any letter exceed the sum of £2 whatever be the amount of coin contained in such letter.

No compensation will be given in respect of damage to a postal packet containing eggs, soft fruit, or any liquid or semi-liquid; or containing any article of an exceptionally fragile character, or any other article which from its nature cannot with reasonable safety be sent by post; or containing a perishable article where the damage arises from natural decay, and the postal packet is delivered without undue delay; or (other than a parcel) which is not marked 'Fragile, with Care.'

But in all such cases compensation will be given for the loss of the postal packet or of any article contained therein.

Where a postal packet (other than a parcel) is marked 'Fragile, with Care,' the Postmaster-General reserves the right to select for such postal packet a route on which postal packets are neither received by nor delivered from trains in motion.

In every case it must appear that the loss or damage did not arise wholly or in part by the fault of the sender, and that it occurred while the postal packet was in the post.

The compensation given will in no case exceed the value of the article lost or the damage sustained.

Compensation for damage will be strictly in accordance with the fee paid and the amount of damage done, no matter what the original total value of the contents may have been.

The Postmaster-General will in every case either of loss or damage, if he thinks fit, reinstate the contents of a postal packet instead of giving pecuniary compensation.

Where compensation is given for the loss of a postal packet, or of any article contained in a postal packet, the Postmaster-General will reserve the right to retain and dispose as he thinks fit of the postal packet or of the missing article, in case it should subsequently come into his hands.

In no case will the Postmaster-General give compensation for injury or damage consequential upon the loss, damage, or delay of a postal packet or any article contained therein.

Without prejudice to any of the preceding rules, the Postmaster-General will, if he thinks fit, refuse to give compensation for loss or damage on any ground on which a common carrier might in like case claim exemption from legal liability.

Claims for Compensation.

Every application for compensation should be made within seven days after the date on which the postal packet was posted, and the certificate of posting should be produced when required.

Where the application relates to the damage of the packet, or to the damage or loss of any article contained therein, the packet should be retained for inspection as nearly as possible in the state in which it was delivered. When the complaint is that the contents have been abstracted, the envelope must accompany the application.

Where a postal packet when delivered bears signs of injury, the recipient should call attention to the fact of such injury at the time of delivery, and, if possible, open the postal packet in the presence of an officer of the Post Office.

The compensation payable in respect of a registered parcel will be in substitution for and not in addition to any compensation which would have been payable in case the parcel had not been registered.

The scheme of registration and compensation does not apply to Foreign and Colonial registered postal packets.

The several Postal Administrations of the countries belonging to the Postal Union undertake to pay an indemnity of fifty francs in the event of its being proved to their satisfaction that a registered letter itself has been lost whilst in their custody, but no question of compensation is entertained by them for, or in respect of, the loss of the enclosure of any such letter.

No town postman is allowed to take a letter to be registered; but rural postmen can do so on their walks.

RE-DIRECTION AND DELIVERY.

Every inland re-directed letter, post card, or other postal packet, is liable to an additional postage (at the prepaid rate) for each re-direction, unless both the original and the second address be within the delivery of the same Post Office, and the re-direction be made by an officer of the Post Office.

If an inland registered letter, when re-directed, instead of being taken back to the Post Office to be dealt with as a registered letter, is dropped into the letter-box as an ordinary letter (the word 'registered' not having been erased, or having been erased in pencil only), it is surcharged with a registration fee of eightpence, less the value of any stamps affixed for registration.

Letters, etc., sent to or received from a country of the General Postal Union and re-directed to any place in the United Kingdom or to another country within the Union, are not liable to any additional charge, nor, if registered, to an additional registration fee; such, however, as have been in the first instance addressed to a place in the country where they were posted, are chargeable with the same postage, less the sum prepaid, which would have been charged had they been charged in the first instance to the place of their ultimate delivery, but, if registered, without additional fee.

Letters, etc., addressed from one part of the United Kingdom to another, and then re-directed to a country not in the Postal Union, are liable to an additional colonial or foreign rate, and, if registered, to an additional fee for registration.

Letters, etc., received here from a country not in the Postal Union, and re-directed to another country not in the Postal Union, are liable to an additional colonial or foreign rate, and, if registered, to an additional fee. If re-directed to some place within the United Kingdom, they are liable to an additional inland rate; but if re-directed to any country of the Postal Union to which the postage from the country of origin is not higher than to this country, they are forwarded free of charge; but in neither case is an additional registration fee required.

Letters, etc., received from any country of the Postal Union, and re-directed to a country not in the Postal Union, are liable to an additional colonial or foreign rate, and, if registered, to an additional fee.

No charge for re-direction is made on newspapers from any place abroad, unless they have been opened, in which case they are liable to postage as books.

Letters for Commissioned officers in the army or navy, on actual service, are exempt from any charge for re-direction.

Notices of removal and applications for letters, etc., to be re-directed must in all cases be duly signed by the persons to whom the letters are addressed; printed forms of notice can be obtained at the General Post Office, or from the postman of the district. A separate notice should be filled up for parcels. Persons who are about to change their residence should inform their correspondents beforehand of their intention.

No person living within the town free delivery, unless he rent a private box, can obtain his letters at the General Post Office.

Private Boxes and Bags.—The fee for a private box is £3 per annum; and if for a private bag, £1 additional; and if for parcels, an additional fee; and for combined private box and delivery, £3; for delivery from one address to another (removal excepted), 21s.; and for private delivery of registered letters only, a fee of 5s.

STAMPS (POSTAGE AND INLAND REVENUE).

Postage labels (also available for telegrams) are of the respective values of $\frac{1}{4}$ d., 1d., $\frac{1}{2}$ d., 2d., $\frac{3}{4}$ d., 3d., 4d., 5d., 6d., 9d., 10d., 1s., 2s. 6d., 5s., 10s., and £1, stamped telegraph book 10s., interleaved 2d. extra. The embossed envelopes bearing 1d. stamp are of three sorts, and sold thus, viz. $4\frac{1}{2} \times 3\frac{1}{2}$, at 1s. 2d., and $5\frac{1}{2} \times 3$, at 1s. 1d. per dozen. 'Commercial' at $10\frac{1}{4}$ d. for 10. Embossed envelopes bearing $\frac{3}{4}$ d. stamp are of two sizes, viz. $5\frac{1}{2} \times 3\frac{1}{2}$, at 1s. $\frac{1}{4}$ d. for 5, and $5\frac{1}{2} \times 4\frac{1}{2}$, at 1s. $\frac{1}{2}$ d. for 5. Registered Letter envelopes are of five sizes, viz. $5\frac{1}{2} \times 3\frac{1}{2}$ and $6 \times 3\frac{1}{2}$, sold at $\frac{3}{4}$ d. each, or 2s. $\frac{3}{4}$ d. per doz.; 8×5 and 9×4 , at $\frac{3}{4}$ d. each, or 2s. 7d. per doz.; and $11\frac{1}{2} \times 6$, at 3d. each, or 2s. 10d. per doz. Halfpenny stamped wrappers are sold at 7 for 4d., or £1, 2s. 10d. per parcel of 480, and penny stamped wrappers at 8 for $8\frac{1}{2}$ d.

Inland post cards, stout 10 for 6d., thin 10 for $5\frac{1}{2}$ d.; reply post cards at double rates. Foreign post cards, 1d. each, and reply cards at 2d. each.

Letter cards, 5 for 6d.

Bill and Inland Revenue stamps of the respective values of 1d., 2d., 3d., 6d., 9d., and 1s. are sold at the General Post Office, Branch and Sub Offices.

Postage stamps may be used to denote the duties on the following documents, viz.:—

Agreements, under hand only, where liable to a duty of 6d.

Bills of Exchange (including cheques) for payment of money on demand liable to the duty of 1d.

Certified copies of, or extracts from, Registers of Births, etc. (duty 1d.).

Charter Parties (duty 6d.).

Contract Notes advising the sale or purchase of any stock or marketable security of less value than £100 (duty 1d.).

Delivery Orders (duty 1d.).

Lease, or Tack, or Agreement, for a Lease or Tack for any definite term less than a year, of a dwelling-house, or part of a dwelling-house, at a rent not exceeding the rate of £10 a year (duty 1d.). Of a furnished dwelling-house, or apartments (duties 6d., 1s., 1s. 6d., 2s., and 2s. 6d. according to rent).

Letters of Renunciation (duty 1d.).

Notarial Acts (duty 1s.).

Policies of Insurance—not life or marine (duty 1d.).

Protests of Bills of Exchange or of Promissory Notes (duties 1d., 2d., 5d., 6d. and 9d.) in agreement with the duty on the Bill or Note, and 1s. when the Bill or Note is stamped with 1s. or upwards.

Proxies (where liable to the duty of 1d only).

Receipts (duty 1d.).

Transfers of Shares in Cost Book Mines (duty 6d.).

Voting Papers (duty 1d.).

Warrants for Goods (duty 3d.).

One or more stamps may be used to make up the requisite amount, care being taken to cancel the stamps by writing the signature (or initials) and the date across each stamp.

Payment of postage cannot be made by means of postage stamps which have been cut, torn, or otherwise rendered imperfect; or of embossed or impressed stamps, cut out from the envelopes, cards, or wrappers on which such were embossed or impressed.

All postmasters in the United Kingdom at whose offices money order business is transacted, are permitted, though not compelled, to purchase postage stamps from the public (provided the stamps be not soiled or otherwise damaged), at a charge of $\frac{2}{3}$ per cent.; the charge, however, never being less than one halfpenny. Under this arrangement the charges are as follows: For stamps not exceeding 1s. 8d. in value, $\frac{1}{2}$ d.; 3s. 4d., 1d.; 5s., $\frac{1}{2}$ d.; 6s. 8d., 2d.; 8s. 4d., $\frac{3}{4}$ d., and so on. No separate stamps can be purchased, or less than two adhering to each other.

In consequence of representations made to the Post Office by various firms, that there is reason to believe that their postage stamps were purloined by persons in their employ, the department recommend that the name or initials of firms, etc., be perforated through the stamps. Postmasters are instructed not to purchase such stamps.

ARTICLES NOT ALLOWED TO BE SENT BY POST.

No indecent or obscene print, painting, photograph, lithograph, engraving, book, card, or other article, or any article having thereon any words, marks, or designs of an indecent, obscene, libellous, or grossly offensive character, nor can any explosive, dangerous, or noxious substance, any living creature, or anything likely to injure the contents of the mail bag or the person of any officer of the Post Office.

The transmission of gold, silver, precious stones, and jewellery to many countries in the Postal Union is, as a rule, prohibited; and to Italy and United States of America—anything relating to foreign lotteries.

In the Cape of Good Hope and Queensland—jewellery and precious articles, if dutiable, are liable to detention until the duty is paid.

In Spain and Victoria—jewellery is dutiable and liable to confiscation.

(See also under Colonial and Foreign Pattern and Sample Post.)

MISCELLANEOUS REGULATIONS AND SUGGESTIONS.

No information can be given respecting letters which pass through a post office except to the persons to whom they are addressed; and in no other way is official information of a private character allowed to be made public.

Postmasters are not allowed to return any letter or other packet to the writer or sender, or to any one else, or to delay forwarding it to its destination according to the address, even though a request to such effect be written thereon.

Postmasters are not bound to give change, nor are they authorized to demand it; and when money is paid at a post office, whether as change or otherwise, no question as to its right amount, goodness, or weight can be entertained after it has been removed from the counter.

Postmasters are not bound to weigh any letters or other packets for the public, but they may do so if their duty be not thereby impeded. This rule does not apply to parcels.

If a letter be forwarded under cover to any postmaster with a request that he will re-post it at his office, the letter, on being re-posted, will be endorsed with the words 'posted at ———, under cover, to the Postmaster of ———.'

To facilitate the delivery of letters, a letter-box should be affixed to every house door.

Every address should be legible and complete, and every letter should contain the full address of the writer, in order to ensure its return if the person to whom it is directed cannot be found.

Letters which cannot be delivered are kept from one to three days, according to circumstances, before being returned, unless addressed 'to be called for,' when they are retained one month, and if addressed to a ship, two months before being returned.

Letters addressed to club houses, hotels, and other places where letters are received to be called for, should be returned to the Post Office as soon as it is evident that they will not be called for.

MONEY ORDERS.

Money Orders are issued and paid at General Post Office, from 10 to 4; Saturdays, 10 to 1; Branch Offices, 9 to 7; and at the Sub Offices, 9 to 7; Saturdays, 9 to 6.

When applying for Money Orders, the public should use the printed 'Application Forms,' which are supplied gratuitously at all Money Order Offices.

The commission on Inland Money Orders is:—

For sums not exceeding £1 . . .	2d.
" above £1 " . . .	2. . . 3d.
" " 2 " . . .	4. . . 4d.
" " 4 " . . .	7. . . 5d.
" " 7 " . . .	10. . . 6d.

No Money Order can be issued, unless the applicant furnish, in full, the surname, and at least the initial of one Christian name, both of the remitter and the payee, and the remitter's address.

In the case of Foreign Orders, the full address of the payee must be given; and if the order be payable to a native in British India, the tribe or caste and the father's name must also be furnished.

Exceptions.—1st. The remitter of an Inland Order may direct, at the time of issue, that the order be crossed like a cheque thus, '& Co.,' and thus be payable only through a bank. In that case he may give or withhold the name of the payee. The designation of the bank need not be furnished.

2nd. If the remitter or payee be a peer or a bishop, his ordinary title is sufficient.

3rd. The usual designation of a firm, as well as the ordinary title of any company, corporation, or society, is sufficient, either as remitter or payee. In the case of a money order payable to any company, corporation, or society, the money order must be stamped in the receipt space with the name of the company mentioned in the advice as the payee, and be presented by an individual known to be authorised to receive monies on behalf of such company. In cases where no stamp is used, the individual must receipt the money order by writing the name of the company and also his own name.

The holder of an inland Money Order may direct, by crossing it, that it be paid through a bank, even although not originally intended.

When application is made for a Money Order payable in London, or at any other town where there is more than one Money Order Office, the remitter should say at which of such offices he wishes it to be paid; otherwise it can be drawn only upon the Head Office. It is not incumbent on a postmaster to supply such information relative to local or provincial offices.

An order once issued cannot be cancelled.

The remitter of an order has full control over the money until payment has been made. He may make his order payable ten days after date, provided that, in the presence of the postmaster, when he obtains the order, he affixes thereto, in the space after the request C., a penny receipt stamp, and write his signature across the stamp.

When an order is presented for payment (otherwise than through a bank), it must be properly signed, and the party presenting the order must be able to give the name of the remitter; and if the reply be correct, the order will be paid, unless the postmaster has good reason for believing that the applicant is neither the rightful claimant, nor deputed by the payee. When an order is presented through a bank, crossed with the name of the bank by some person known to be in the employment of the bank, the usual formalities on presentation are dispensed with.

Money Orders do not require a receipt stamp.

Although at the end of twelve months from that in which it was issued, a Money Order, if still unpaid, becomes legally void, nevertheless, when a good reason can be given for the delay in presenting it, an application for payment, subject to a certain deduction, is entertained.

No application can be entertained for compensation for alleged injury from the non-payment of a Money Order at the expected time.

After once paying a Money Order, by whomsoever presented, the office is not liable to any further claim.

To guard against fraud, the remitter is recommended—

1. When he is well known to the payee, to sign the letter enclosing the order with his initials only.
2. When this is not the case, either to make the order payable ten days after date, or to register the letter enclosing it, or to make the order payable through a bank by crossing it like an ordinary cheque.
3. When it is not considered expedient to adopt either of these courses, to send the remitter's name (without a knowledge of which payment cannot be obtained) in a separate letter from that containing the Money Order.

Payment of an order cannot be made on the same day on which it is issued.

In case of the miscarriage or loss of an inland Money Order in transmission through the post, a duplicate is granted on a written application giving particulars to the Controller of the Money Order Office in England, Scotland, or Ireland, as the case may be, where the original order was issued; but for an order otherwise lost, a charge of 1s. for sums not exceeding £5, and 2s. for sums not exceeding £10 is made for a duplicate order. If it be desired to stop payment of an inland order, application must be made at the office where the order is payable, and a second commission in postage stamps enclosed. If alteration in the name of the payee or remitter of an inland Money Order should be required, application must be made by the remitter to the postmaster of the office at which the order was issued, accompanied with a second commission. Should transfer of payment of an inland order from one office to another in the United Kingdom, or repayment of the amount of an order, be required, an application enclosing the order must be made to the postmaster at whose office the order is payable, who will transmit in exchange a new order payable at the place desired, but for a less sum than the original order by the amount of the second commission. Proper printed forms for making applications in all these cases may be obtained at any Money Order Office. Whenever, on complaint being made, it is found that the necessity for an application, entailing the payment of a fresh commission, is attributable to the Post Office, the charge will be remitted to the applicant, and imposed on the officer in fault.

A postmaster is required to give information how to apply for a duplicate order, etc., and must furnish the prescribed form of application. If payment of an order be refused in consequence of the replies to the questions respecting the remitter, or the signature on the order, not corresponding with the entries in the advice, the applicant for payment should communicate with the remitter, and request him to apply personally to the issuing postmaster.

Money Orders for amounts not exceeding £50 are issued, free of charge, in favour of 'The Receiver-General of Inland Revenue,' when required for the remittance of Income Tax, Inhabited House Duty, Land Tax, or Excise Duties, or Legacy and Succession Duties. The official notice to pay must, in each case, be presented for inspection when the order is applied for.

Telegraph Money Orders (Inland).

Money may be transmitted by Telegraph Money Order between all Offices authorized to transact Telegraph and Money Order business.

The commission is double ordinary rates.

No Telegraph Money Order can be issued for more than £10.

In addition to the commission, a charge is made at the ordinary inland rate for the official telegram authorizing payment at the office of payment, and for the repetition thereof, the minimum being 9d. The telegraph charges only cover the cost of transmitting the official telegram of advice to the postmaster of the office of payment, and its repetition. Any telegraphic communication which the remitter may wish to despatch to the payee must be paid for at the ordinary inland rate.

Any person expecting a remittance by Telegraph must produce satisfactory evidence that he is the person entitled to receive the money.

Should repayment of a Telegraph Money Order be required, the remitter must make application to the Controller, Money Order Office, G.P.O., London, Edinburgh, or Dublin, as the case may be, enclosing the receipt. A new order will then be issued, less the ordinary commission, payable at any Money Order Office named for the purpose.

In other respects, Telegraph Money Orders are subject to the regulations which govern the transmission of ordinary Money Orders.

Money Orders are issued in the United Kingdom on the undermentioned countries and agencies, at the following rates for sums not exceeding:—

In the case of orders to Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, Chili, Denmark, Danish West Indies, Dutch East Indies, Iceland, Egypt, Germany and Heligoland, New Guinea, The Cameroons, Holland, Hungary, Japan, Norway, Portugal, Roumania, Sweden, Switzerland, Tunis, India, and the towns of Adrianople, Beyrout, and Salonica, the original order should be retained by the remitter, a new order in the currency of the country of payment being issued by the Chief Office of that country, and sent to the payee.

In the case of British Bechuanaland, Canada, Constantinople, France, etc., Hawaii, Italy, etc., N. Borneo, the Orange Free State, Sarawak, Transvaal, the United States, Panama, Smyrna, Tangier, and the British Possessions and Colonies generally, India excepted, the order should be sent to the payee by the remitter.

The issue of a duplicate order, or the stoppage of payment of an order issued by a colony or foreign country on the United Kingdom, will be made on application to the Controller of the Chief Money Order Office, London, provided an additional commission of 1s. for sums not exceeding £5, and 2s. for sums above £5 and not exceeding £10 be enclosed. For stoppage of payment an additional commission at the ordinary inland rates. Postmasters in the United Kingdom have power to transfer to other offices in the United Kingdom payment of colonial and foreign orders originally drawn on their own offices.

Orders issued in the United Kingdom on Austria, Bulgaria, Belgium, Chili, Denmark, Danish West Indies, the Dutch East Indian Possessions, Egypt, France, Hawaii, Holland, Hungary, Italy, Japan, Norway, Orange Free State, the Ottoman Towns of Adrianople, Beyrout, and Salonica, Portugal, Roumania, Sarawak, Sweden, Switzerland, Tunis, United States, and the British Colonies and Possessions, are payable for twelve months after the month of issue. Orders issued on the German Empire and India are subject to the regulations which govern the payment of Money Orders in those countries.

Orders for the British Colonies and other possessions abroad, excepting Canada and India, are drawn in Sterling, but in those Colonies where the local currency is other than Sterling, payments may be made to the nearest equivalent in the legal currency of the place.

POSTAL ORDERS.

Postal Orders are issued at all Money Order Offices in the United Kingdom, at the British Post Office at Constantinople, and in Malta, Gibraltar, India, Straits Settlements, Hong Kong, and Newfoundland. Such Postal Orders are paid at all Money Order Offices in the United Kingdom, and at the British Post Office, Constantinople. Payment is also made in Malta and Gibraltar, provided the orders were issued in the United Kingdom, or at the British Post Office, Constantinople.

The following are the amounts for which Postal Orders are issued, together with the poundage payable in respect of each order:—

1s. or 1s. 6d.,	½d. each.
2s., 2s. 6d., 3s., 3s. 6d., 4s., 4s. 6d.
5s., 7s. 6d., 10s., or 10s. 6d.,	1d. each.
15s. or 20s.,	1½d. each.

Broken amounts may be made up by affixing postage stamps not exceeding 5d. to the face of the order.

The person to whom a Postal Order is issued must, before parting with it, fill in the name of the person to whom the amount is to be paid, and may fill in the name of the Money Order Office at which the amount is to be paid. The person so named must, before payment can be made, sign the receipt at the foot of the order, and must also fill in the name of the Money Order Office, if that has not been already done.

Every person obtaining a Postal Order should keep a record of the number, date, and office of issue to facilitate inquiry in case of loss.

If a Postal Order be crossed '& Co.' payment will only be made through a banker, and if the name of a banker is added, payment will only be made through that banker.

A Postal Order presented by or through a banker for payment will not (in the absence of an express arrangement between such banker and the Postmaster-General to the contrary) be paid until after such order has been examined at the Chief Office in London.

After a Postal Order has once been paid, to whomsoever it is paid, the Postmaster-General will not be liable for any further claim.

If any erasure or alteration be made, or if the order is cut, defaced, or mutilated, payment may be refused.

A postmaster may require the person presenting an order to sign his name on the back before its payment, although the receipt has already been signed.

After the expiration of three months from the last day of the month of issue, a Postal Order will be payable only on payment of a commission equal to the original poundage, and an additional poundage will be charged for every period of three months, or portion thereof; and the commission thus paid must be affixed in postage stamps on the back of the order.

Postal Order business is transacted during the hours at which postage stamps can be purchased.

POST OFFICE SAVINGS BANKS.

Post Office Savings Banks are established at all Money Order Offices, and are open for bank business during the same hours as for money orders.

Deposits of one shilling, or of any number of shillings, may be made, but no one may deposit more than £30 in one year ending 31st December, and £200 in all, inclusive of interest. A depositor may not more than once, in any Savings Bank year, deposit money to replace, wholly or in part, money previously withdrawn in one entire sum during that year. In addition, deposits will be received for immediate investment in Government Stock, and in connection with Government Insurance and Annuities.

Any person desirous of saving one shilling by means of penny contributions for deposit, may do so by purchasing with every penny so saved a Penny Postage Stamp, and affixing it to a form to be obtained at any Post Office.

Interest at the rate of £2, 10s. per cent. per annum is allowed until the sum amounts to £200, when interest ceases. The calculation is made from the first day of the calendar month next following the day on which a complete pound shall have been deposited or completed up to the last day of the calendar month preceding the day on which a warrant for repayment is issued; and after 31st December the interest is added to the principal.

Deposits may be made—

- (A.) By persons of full age, and not under legal disability.
- (B.) By married women.
- (C.) By children 7 years old and upwards.
- (D.) On behalf and in the names of children under 7 years old. In this case the money is not repayable until the children attain the age of 7.
- (E.) On behalf and in the names of insane persons by those appointed to represent them.
- (F.) By two persons jointly on their own behalf. In this case neither person must have any other account in a Savings Bank, and the signature of both persons will be required to a notice of withdrawal.
- (G.) By one person as trustee for another person, also named in the account. The signatures of both persons will be required to a notice of withdrawal. A person may act as trustee in any number of accounts, and at the same time have an account in his own name.
- (H.) By a duly registered friendly society, through its trustees. In this case deposits may be made without limit.
- (I.) By a charitable or provident society, penny bank, or similar institution, through the trustees or treasurer. In this case deposits may be made to the extent of £100 in any one year, and £300 in the whole, and if the consent of the National Debt Commissioners be obtained, without limit.
- (J.) By societies, limited companies, and other corporations not coming under (H) or (I).
- (K.) By vicars and rectors of parishes and other official persons, being corporations sole, in their official titles. In these cases the ordinary limits apply.

[Societies wishing to deposit under (H), (I), (J), and (K) must first apply for authority to the Controller of the Savings Bank Department, sending a copy of their rules in the case of a society or other institution.]

(L.) In the name of the Registrar of any County Court. Under the 70th section of the County Courts Act, 51 and 52 Vict. cap. 43, 'trust moneys' not in excess of £500 may be thus deposited; and under the 71st section, money paid into a County Court in 'equitable proceedings' may be deposited by the Registrar without restriction as to amount.

All deposits standing in the sole name of a married woman domiciled in England or Ireland, will be deemed, unless and until the contrary is shown, to be the separate property of such married woman; and the fact that any deposit is standing in the sole name of a married woman, will be considered prima facie evidence that she is entitled to withdraw and receive the same, without the concurrence of her husband.

Payment of deposits by a married woman domiciled in Scotland, will take place subject to the provisions of the Married Women's Property (Scotland) Act, 1877, and the Married Women's Property (Scotland) Act, 1881.

Any woman who marries while she is a depositor, should forward to the Controller of the Savings Bank Department a certificate of her marriage, together with her deposit book, and the deposits will thereupon be entered in her married name.

Once in each year, on the anniversary of the day on which the first deposit was made, the depositor should forward the deposit book to the Controller of the Post Office Savings Bank Department in London, in order that it may be compared with the books of the department, and the interest due to the depositor inserted in it.

When a depositor wishes to make a withdrawal from his account, he should fill up and forward to the Savings Bank Department a notice of withdrawal, which he can obtain at any Post Office Savings Bank. He will then receive by post a warrant, which he should present together with his book at the Post Office where payment is to be made.

Postmasters and other officers of the Postmaster-General employed in the receipt or payment of deposits, are strictly forbidden to disclose the name of any depositor, or the amount deposited or withdrawn, except to the Postmaster-General, or to such of his officers as are appointed to assist in carrying out the provisions of the Post Office Savings Banks Act.

INVESTMENTS AND SALES OF GOVERNMENT STOCK.

A depositor in the Post Office Savings Bank who desires to invest in Government Stock, must send to the Controller of the Savings Bank Department, General Post Office, London, an application signed by him on a form to be obtained at any Post Office Savings Bank. Such investments can be made in Consolidated Two and Three Quarters, Two and Three Quarters (1905) in Two and a Half per cent., or in Local Loans Three per Cent. Stock.

Within seven days from the receipt of such application the depositor's account will be charged with the current price of the Stock purchased and the commission, the necessary entries being made in his deposit book; and the depositor will be credited in the Government Stock Register of the Post Office Savings Bank with the equivalent amount of Stock, and a certificate sent him.

The minimum amount of Stock which may be purchased or sold is one shilling, and not more than £100 Stock can be credited to an account in any year ending 31st December, or £300 Stock in all.

For an immediate investment in Government Stock a deposit to an amount not exceeding the value of £100 Stock with the commission may be made in one year ending the 31st December.

Dividends in respect of Stock standing to a depositor's credit will be carried to his deposit account.

A depositor who desires to sell the Stock standing to his credit, or part of the Stock, must send to the Controller of the Savings Bank Department, London, together with his deposit book and investment certificate, an application signed by him on a form obtainable at any Post Office Savings Bank.

Within seven days of the receipt of such application the sale will be effected at the current price of the day of sale, and a warrant will be sent the depositor for the amount realized, less commission.

The commission chargeable on investment, including the receipt of dividends, and on the sale of Stock, is 9d. for the first £25, and 6d. for every additional £25.

Particulars regarding Stock certificates may be learned at any Money Order Office.

GOVERNMENT INSURANCE AND ANNUITY.

Any person between 14 and 65 years of age may insure his or her life for not less than £5 or more than £100. The lives of children between 8 and 14 years of age may be insured for £5.

Immediate or deferred annuities of not less than £1, or more than £100, may be purchased through the Post Office on the life of any person over 5 years of age.

Forms of proposal for the insurance of lives and the purchase of annuities may be obtained at any Post Office Savings Bank.

Persons proposing to insure their lives or purchase annuities, must furnish a statement, giving full particulars of their age, upon a form which will be supplied by the Postmaster with the form of proposal.

If such statement can be verified by the Registrar-General, London, no further evidence of age will be required, but if not, proposers must provide, at their own cost, such certificates of birth or baptism, or other evidence of age, as shall be required of them.

When the age has once been proved, further contracts are granted without requiring any further evidence of age.

The premiums will be payable through the medium of Savings Bank deposit accounts, and will be accepted in addition to ordinary deposits and deposits for immediate investment in Government Stock.

An annuity or insurance contract is issued on payment of the purchase money if a single payment, or of the first annual premium in full. Provision can be made for the payment of premiums by increasing the money in the Bank by deposits of not less than 1s. at any Post Office Savings Bank, and by the use of the penny postage stamp slips, the provision can be made in sums of 1d. at a time.

So long as there is a sufficient sum standing to the credit of the deposit account, each premium will be deducted therefrom as it becomes due, without the depositor being troubled in the matter, and notice will be sent as evidence that the premium has been paid. If the balance in the account is insufficient to cover any premium due, the depositor will be informed accordingly, in order that he may make a deposit, which may be done at any Post Office Savings Bank. If desired, the premiums can be transferred from the account of any person other than the annuitant or insurant, with the consent in writing of the depositor.

INSURANCES.

The following examples show various ways in which insurances may be effected:—

The life of a male or female between 21 and 22 years of age may be insured for £10—

By an annual payment throughout life of	£0 4 4
By an annual payment to the age of 60 of	0 4 8
By a single payment of	4 4 0

A sum of money may be insured on the attainment of the age of 60 years, or sooner in the event of death, by the payment of a single or annual premium, and a sum of money may be insured at the expiration of 10, 15, 20, 25, 30, 35, or 40 years, or sooner in the event of death, by the payment of a single premium according to the age of the insured person.

Insurances for sums not exceeding £25 will be granted without a medical examination, upon production of satisfactory evidence as to health; but in such cases, if the insurant should die before the second premium becomes payable, the amount of the first premium, and no more, will be paid to his representatives; and if he should die after the payment of the second premium and before the third premium becomes payable, half the amount insured, and no more, will be paid to his representatives. In either of these cases, however, if it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Postmaster-General that the death of the insured person was caused by accident, the full amount insured will be paid.

Persons proposing to insure for more than £25 must undergo a medical examination, the cost of which is paid by the department. And persons proposing to insure for sums not exceeding £25 may undergo a medical examination, if they so desire, by payment of a fee of 2s. 6d. to the medical examiner. In all cases of insurance granted after medical examination, the insured person is entitled to the full benefit of insurance immediately the policy is granted.

No one life can be insured for less than £5, but when a life has been insured for £5 further insurances may be effected on the same life from time to time for any amount until the whole sum for which it is insured amounts to £100.

If, after having paid not less than two annual premiums, an insurant should be unable to continue or should desire to discontinue the payments, such sum of money as the National Debt Commissioners shall determine to be the surrender value will be returned.

Permission is granted to persons over 30 years of age, who have been insured 5 years, to reside in any part of the world free of any extra premium.

ANNUITIES.

The following examples show various ways in which different kinds of annuities may be obtained,

When the condition of the contract is to be that no part of the purchase money shall, in any event, be returned:—

A male aged 24 may purchase a deferred annuity of £1, to commence on his reaching the age of 54, and to be payable half-yearly, either by an annual payment until he reaches the age of 54 of	£0 4 4
Or by an immediate payment of	3 19 10
A female aged 34 may purchase a deferred annuity of £1, to commence on her reaching the age of 62, and to be payable half-yearly, either by an annual payment until she reaches the age of 62 of	0 4 4
Or by an immediate payment of	3 19 0

When the condition of the contract is to be that, in the event of the death of the person on whose life the annuity is to depend before the commencement of the annuity, the purchase money is to be returned to his representatives; and that if the purchaser at any time before the commencement of the annuity is unable to continue or wishes to discontinue the purchase, the purchase money shall be returned:—

A male aged 10 may purchase a deferred annuity of £1, to commence on his reaching the age of 50, and to be payable half-yearly, either by an annual payment until he reaches the age of 50 of	£0 4 4
Or by an immediate payment of	5 11 9
A female aged 24 may purchase a deferred annuity of £1, to commence on her reaching the age of 60, and to be payable half-yearly, either by an annual payment until she reaches the age of 60 of	0 4 4
Or by an immediate payment of	5 4 11
A male aged 65 can purchase an immediate annuity of £1, payable half-yearly, for	9 13 4
A male aged 30 can purchase an immediate annuity of £1, payable half-yearly, for	20 9 1
A female aged 45 can purchase an immediate annuity of £1, payable half-yearly, for	18 6 9
A female aged 25 can purchase an immediate annuity of £1, payable half-yearly, for	23 15 0

Any two persons may purchase an immediate annuity on their joint lives, with or without continuance of the annuity to the survivor.

POST OFFICE TELEGRAPHS.

The charge for telegrams throughout the United Kingdom is 6d. for twelve words, and 3d. for every additional word. The names and addresses of the sender and receiver being counted.

Telegrams in plain language, in any European tongue or in Latin, are charged for according to the number of words; but all words, not forming part of any European language or of Latin, are charged for at the rate of five letters to a word.

Copies of a telegram directed to more than one person or firm in the same free delivery will be delivered at a charge of 2d. per copy in addition to a halfpenny for each word in the address of the copy.

When the terminal telegraph office, i.e. the office nearest to the address, is a Head Post Office, the amount paid for the transmission covers the cost of delivery within one mile, or within the town postal delivery of that office if more than a mile. But when it is not a Head Post Office, the message is delivered free only within the limit of one mile.

When the terminal office is a sub-office, and that office is closed, exemption from portage is allowed for one mile only if the telegram is delivered from the Head Office, even though the address of the telegram be within the limits of the town postal delivery.

When the address is beyond the free delivery, portage is charged at the rate of 6d. per mile, or any part thereof, provided the whole distance does not exceed three miles; but the charge is calculated from the boundary within which no portage is levied.

If the address is more than 3 miles from the terminal office, portage is charged for by mounted messenger at the rate of 1s. per mile, except in Ireland, where the charge is usually 8d. per mile, the charge being reckoned from the office.

The sender is responsible for all charges incurred in delivery. When the exact distance is not known, a deposit must be paid beyond the free delivery.

If the sender requires his telegram to be forwarded by post or by train from the terminal office, he must write the words 'by post' or 'by train' at the end of the address, and in the latter case he must pay the cost, or deposit 1s. if the cost is not known. If the telegram is to be posted to a place abroad, he must write 'Post —' at the end of the address, and prepay the postage.

A deposit of 5s. is required upon all telegrams addressed to a ship, unless the ship be alongside a wharf; any surplus is refunded.

Telegrams may be repeated at the request of the sender, by being signalled back from office to office, but no copy is given to the sender. The charge for repetition is one-half the ordinary tariff; a fraction of a halfpenny being reckoned as a half-penny.

The sender should furnish his address, to enable the Department to communicate with him if necessary. When not telegraphed, it should be written on the back of the form.

If the receiver of a telegram doubts its accuracy, he may have it repeated by depositing half the amount paid for its transmission, and the amount will be refunded if found to be incorrectly transmitted, or he may have part of it repeated under the same conditions, but the minimum charge is 3d.

The cost of a reply to a telegram, not exceeding forty-eight words, may be prepaid; and a Reply Form will then be delivered to the addressee, who will be at liberty to send his reply, from any telegraph office, at any time within two months. If the Form be not used, it may within the same period be sent to the Secretary, G.P.O., and the value will be refunded to the sender. A Reply Form need not necessarily be used for a reply, but may be used for another message.

Telegrams re-directed to a second address are liable, if any additional service is performed, to an additional charge of 6d. if the two addresses are within the same town, but if the addresses are in different towns the full inland rate is charged. Removals are registered free for one month when this is especially requested; and instructions for the re-direction of Telegrams at hours when the place of business is closed are registered on payment of £1, 1s. per annum; but in both these cases the telegrams are subject to the usual charges for re-direction and portage.

Persons not wishing to send to a telegraph office may post a telegram, addressed 'Telegram—Immediate,' in a wall or pillar box, or in the letter-box of a sub-post office. Telegrams so posted are sent on to the nearest telegraph office by the next collection. The period of arrival at the postal telegraph office is regarded as the time of receipt from the public.

Telegrams posted insufficiently prepaid are forwarded to their destination, the difference of charge being obtained from the addressee; but unpaid telegrams are not forwarded.

No combination of words is counted as one word, with the exception of those which are ordinarily coupled by hyphens, such as 'mother-in-law,' 'non-delivery,' 'fifty-one,' etc.

Compound words such as the following are charged for as one word:—MacDonald, midday, midnight, noon-day, se'nnight, cannot, to-day, to-night, to-morrow, yesternight, yesterday, half-penny, twopence, St Andrews, etc.

Figures are counted at the rate of five to a word; and in fractions according to the number of figures employed, one figure being counted for the mark of division,—thus $\frac{1}{2}$ is one word, and $24\frac{1}{2}$ two words. Groups of figures denoting time are counted one word,—thus, 12.45, the stop being counted as a figure. In groups of figures which do not denote time, a stop is counted as a word,—thus 45.45 is counted three words.

The symbols o/o, a/c, b/l, and c/o are each counted as a word.

Ordinal numbers are charged in the same way as cardinal, with the addition of one word for the affix st, nd, rd, th.

When a group of figures is followed or preceded by a letter, thus 123a, the letter is counted as a word.

When words are underlined, or placed in a parenthesis, or within inverted commas, two extra words are charged for; and when the sender desires that special instructions be written on the envelope enclosing the telegram, such is charged for as part of the message.

Telegrams addressed to a Telegraph Office, to be called for, are kept for two days, and if not then claimed are sent to the Chief Office, London.

Any person may register an abbreviated address on payment of the fee of 21s. a-year.

Telegraph offices are, as a rule, open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m., and from 9 a.m. to 10 a.m. on Sundays. There are, however, offices in several of the larger towns which are open longer; and at various offices in London and in the country the attendance is continuous. G.P.O., Edinburgh, always open.

FOREIGN TELEGRAMS.

Foreign telegrams are divided into two kinds—telegrams in plain language and telegrams in secret language. Those in plain language are composed of words, figures, and letters conveying an intelligible meaning. Those in secret language are divided into two classes, viz. code and cypher.

Code telegrams are those composed of words, the context of which has no intelligible meaning. Proper names are not allowed in the text of code telegrams, except in their natural sense; words of more than ten letters are not allowed. Only English, French, German, Italian, Spanish, Portuguese, Dutch, and Latin may be employed; but words of any or all of these languages are allowed in the same telegram.

Cypher telegrams are those containing series or groups of figures having a secret meaning. Telegrams consisting of groups of letters are not accepted, but groups of letters denoting trade marks are allowed, and charged for as figures.

The address of the receiver must be paid for, and must not consist of less than two words, a name and town. Example: Hercules, Bombay.

The address of the sender is charged for, if transmitted; in any case, it must be written at the foot of the form.

In ordinary European telegrams, the length allowed for a word is 15 letters, in extra-European telegrams 10 letters; any additional letters being charged for at the rate of 15 or 10 letters respectively to the word.

Every separate letter or figure is charged for as a word. In European telegrams, every group of five figures or letters is counted as a word, larger groups being counted at the rate of five to a word, plus one word for any excess. In Extra-European telegrams, groups of figures are counted at the rate of three to a word, plus one word for any excess. Bars of division, decimal points, and stops used in the formation of numbers are counted as figures. Letters added to figures to form ordinal numbers are counted as figures.
